

MOHARAMAT

From 3rd to 30th November Nordvest Bibliotek will be home to a solo exhibition by Syrian-Armenian artist (and Copenhagen resident) Angélique Sanossian's powerful series 'Moharamat'.

Imperfectly translated as 'The Forbidden', the exhibition (which has travelled to numerous exhibitions across Europe) is Angélique's protest at the destruction of cultural heritage during the ongoing war in Syria. Her compositions show destroyed buildings in Aleppo projected onto the female body. All of the buildings had played a role in Angélique's life at some point in the past and lie in ruins today.

Meet Angélique at the library on Wednesday 9th November 17.00 – 20.00
